

MAC 2007 STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

Announcing the

3rd Annual MAC Student Paper Competition

The deadline for submissions is August 27, 2007

All students of Midwestern Archaeology are invited to submit a paper that addresses the prehistory, ethnohistory, or historical archaeology of the Midwest. Three judges will judge the papers based upon clarity of presentation, logic of the argument, and quality of content. The winner will receive books donated to the competition by book vendors participating in the conference.

Requirements:

The paper must be presented at the 2007 MAC Annual Meeting. As such, it is the responsibility of the author to submit a paper proposal and registration to the organizers of the 2007 MAC Conference. Please go to the MAC website for information on how to register for the conference –

<http://www.midwestarchaeology.org/meetings.htm>

Only papers with a single author are eligible and the author must be affiliated with a degree granting institution. When submitting the digital copy of the paper for consideration, the student must send only the version that is to be presented at the conference; longer digital copies will not be accepted. The paper will be judged both on the content and presentation at the conference.

How to apply:

A digital double-spaced copy of the paper should be submitted to Mark Schurr (Mark.R.Schurr.1@nd.edu) by August 27, 2007. It will be forwarded to the competition judges at that time.

The winner will be announced at the 2007 Annual MAC Business Meeting.

If you have any questions, please contact Mark Schurr at Mark.R.Schurr.1@nd.edu or 574-631-7638.